The Orange and Ginger Soapy Shampoo, A Bubble's Story
By Pamela James

Spending time together as a family is an important part of a child's development. Bedtime stories have long been one of the best ways to spend that quality time, as it helps both parent and child decompress from the day, while fostering creativity. Author Pamela James uses her brilliant imagination to build a beautiful story that brings the whole family together for a literary journey with tales of courage and friendship. Set in a world of wonder and discovery, The Orange and Ginger Soapy Shampoo, A Bubble's Story (available June 6, 2022), transports children into a whimsical and colorful world that teaches life lessons about overcoming adversity, embracing friendship, and the power of love.

Amelia's mother washes her hair with a magical shampoo, made of orange, ginger, laughter and love, handed down from a family recipe over many generations. The shampoo gives birth to two special, un-pop-able soap bubbles, Magellan Estefan, his friends call him M.E., and Luminous, Lumy, for short. The two dream of seeing the world beyond their shampoo jar that sits on a kitchen windowsill, overlooking the backyard. One Saturday morning when Amelia's mother is washing her daughter's hair, the bubbles escape their shampoo jar, and they are whisked out the open window by Gentle Wind, setting off on a grand adventure. The friends set their hearts on meeting the biggest and most magical bubbles of all — Bright

Bubble and Blue Bubble, who take turns glowing in the sky, day, and night. In The Orange and Ginger Soapy Shampoo, A Bubble's Story, M.E. and Lumy meet new friends, face enemies, and discover love and loss.
